Food safety is everyone’s business!

This starts during production and continues through the entire food chain.
Food safety is everyone’s business!

Vendors can take steps to ensure food safety by keeping their hands and utensils clean as well as separating live animals and raw food from ready-to-eat food.
Food safety is everyone’s business!

As the last stage of the food chain, consumers are responsible for following good food hygiene practices.
Food safety is everyone's business!

We all need to go shopping from time to time. Stay safe and healthy by practicing physical distancing.
Food safety is everyone's business!

We all need to go shopping from time to time. Stay safe and healthy by sanitizing trolley or basket handles before use.
Food safety is everyone’s business!

When shopping for food and groceries stay safe and healthy by sanitizing your hands before entering the store.
Food safety is everyone’s business!

Protect yourself and others. Stay safe and healthy by practicing good coughing/sneezing etiquette.
Food safety is everyone’s business!

Stay safe and healthy by avoiding touching your mouth, nose or eyes during shopping.
Food safety is everyone’s business!

When shopping, minimise direct contact with food by using tongs and serving utensils.